Logo

The logo is the main element of our brand, the reflection of our values and our work; as our signature, our logo must be used consistently across all our communications without altering any of its elements.

The logo is composed of the icon and a wordmark. While the wordmark must never be used alone the icon can be applied as an accent element on specific items, only in cases when the Tracking brand has already been established. The decision to apply the icon alone is reserved to the Trackingme marketing team.

Only official versions are allowed to be used, if you require an authorized file, please contact our marketing department.

Main Version

The icon on top of the wordmark is the first choice to be used across all platforms and collateral, unless space and layout proportions require a different application.

Full color application

Alternative color application only when using the official dark turquoise as background

Black application

White application to be used on colored backgrounds

Horizontal Version

This version is intended only for spaces that require a horizontal alignment. Unless the layout requires the use of this orientation, always apply the main version.

Safe Zone

In order to ensure full legibility, it is important to keep the logo clear of any other graphic elements. To regulate this, an exclusion zone has been established around it.

The minimum space between the logo and any other graphic element will be the equivalent to the height of the letter “t” of the wordmark.

This also applies to the icon if appears alone.

Incorrect usage

The logo must not be edited or manipulated in anyway, please, refrain from using outdated or non-approved versions of the logo.
